

Industry Resources

In addition to the many other resources and website links in this training manual, and as you surf the Internet, you will find below some valuable resources that may help keep you updated on important issues related to transportation, brokers and dispatchers.

>>> Henry Seaton - Seaton & Husk, LP <<<

Check out this website for some great Q&A:

<http://www.transportationlaw.net/articles.html>

Henry keeps busy with his efforts to influence the FMCSA in attempting to keep them in check on some very important issues.

>>> Commercial Carrier Journal (CCJ) <<<

<http://www.ccjdigital.com/>

You can keep up to date on some of the current issues revolving around the trucking industry including the CSA2010 legislation.

>>> Freightwaves <<<

<https://www.freightwaves.com/>

Real time updates on the biggest freight news stories in the industry

>>> Overdrive Online <<<

<http://www.overdriveonline.com/topic/regulations-2/>

Another good source for regulations and more

>>> Landline Magazine - OOIDA <<<

<http://www.landlinemag.com/>

This monthly magazine is geared for Owner Operators and covers a number of issues and topics related not only to trucking but to brokering as well

>>> Logistics Management <<<

<http://www.logisticsmgmt.com/>

This resource above covers an excellent range of broad topics in the logistics/supply chain industries worldwide. It is free either online or you may order the print copy.

>>> SBTC - Small Business in Transportation Coalition
<<<

<http://www.smalltransportation.org/>

This is a relatively new professional organization for smaller, brokers and truckers. Perhaps the fight isn't between truckers and brokers - it's between large corporations that want to squash smaller companies.

>>> DispatchTrack <<<

<https://www.dispatchtrack.com/blog/logistics-technology-trends>

DispatchTrack offers the most powerful end-to-end suite of tools for last mile logistics operators

=====

These resources are not necessarily recommendations but rather sources of information that may be helpful.